Privacy Statement

Personal information which you provide to TISCA through actions such as online form completion or sending us one of our forms with your personal information on it is stored by us for TISCA purposes only and will not be disclosed to a third party without your consent.

Unless you indicate otherwise in the relevant section of the form/website completed by you, or by other subsequent notification to us, we may use this information to communicate with you about TISCA events which may be of interest to you. We may send this information by mail or by email. If you wish at any time to be removed from the list of those with whom we communicate, please let us know and we shall unsubscribe you.

Personal information will be deleted from the TISCA database at your request or when it is no longer required, in accordance with regulatory requirements currently in force.

If you require further information related to your personal information held by TISCA, please can you contact us at tisca@btinternet.com or telephone us on 01926-315367.
